

Home Education Journal: back issue contents Volume 1

• Editorial Issue 1 • Ban schools - A dangerous Idea? • A Broad and Balanced Curriculum? by Stella Howden • The Elective Home Education Service in Leeds Brian Hogg Education Leeds • Respect or Anything Goes? Home educators know that learning values is a creative process By Jan Fortune-Wood • Children in Crisis: the absence of the right to education in Japan by Kyoko Aizawa, Otherwise Japan • Which Way for Learning? Part 1: The Problem of Learning Systems, Home-based Education and Democracy. by Roland Meighan • Home Education in the West Midlands by Joy Beasley • Home Educators win UK final of the First Lego League Competition • Home Education and the Muslim Community by Fzeelah El-Sawah • Guidance to LEAs. • New legislation PRR • Truancy Guidance • Curfew Proposals. • DfES & Welsh Assembly Guidance to LEAs • Northern Ireland • Editorial Issue 4 • Hot housing is good for kids – or is it? • Guidance & Assurances – how far can we trust them? by Neil Taylor • Age Discrimination and Education. • Scotland •	• Local Authority Websites: • Educational Maintenance Awards • Safe and Well Visits. • Safe in Their Hands? by Mike Fortune-Wood • Deregistration – A right in law? by Louisa Haywood-Samuel • How many children are home educated? Preliminary results of research (for publication, summer 2006) by Mike Fortune-Wood • Resources Review • Our Life Without Schooling - In Germany by Elisabeth Kuhnle • Editorial Issue 2 • Educational Philosophies and their Legal Significance. by Mike Fortune-Wood • He Who Pays the Piper Calls the Tune Government funding and Home Education by Deborah W. • A Comparison between the Law on Homeschooling in Belgium and Holland by Joke Sperling • Home Educating a Large Family by Henrietta Turnbull • John Holt • “Independent” Research into Home Education by Mike Fortune-Wood • Virtual State Schools and Home Education by Mike Fortune-Wood • Open as to Whom by Jan Fortune-Wood • Which Way for Learning? Part 2 – The Problem of Learning Systems, Home-based Education and Democracy. by Roland Meighan • New LEA duty – identifying children out of school. • Children’s Index	• Schools have absolute power over leaves of absence. • Online access to banned persons list. • Change in German Education Law. • Deregistration on demand – in the news • Recording ban • Where Are They Now? by Rowan Fortune-Wood • Orwell: Bad Is Good & Good Is Bad by Mike Fortune Wood • Nursery Environment can Damage Social Development • Children aged 2 to attend school • Parliamentary Questions • Looming School Closures • School’s out forever? • Another world champion • Resource Reviews • Editorial Issue 3 • School Refusal by Yvonne Scott-Frasor • HES FES 2006 by Mike Fortune-Wood • Home educating...the second generation! by Gina Bass • What did you learn today, Mum? by Jan Fortune-Wood • Home Educating as a Single Parent by Christine Waterman • Running a Learning Centre by Jo Davis • Schoolhouse Celebrates its 10th Anniversary • LEAs & What they really think! By Mike Fortune-Wood • One mans trash by Gina Bass •	• Home Education Hostility By Clare Murton • Every Child is Special – but some are more special than others by Abbie Green • Front Page Spread on Home Education • Statementing Under the Spotlight • The Costs of Education • Local Authority Consultations • SEN and the Social Services • German Exodus? • School Buses in the Spotlight • Special Education Postcode lottery • Pupil Registration Regulations 2006 (England) • When ‘support’ means ‘intervention’ by Jan Fortune-Wood • An End to Course Work? • Victoria Climbié Myth Trottled Out Again • Bedford Home Educators by Mike Fortune-Wood • YouTube and Home-Education by Rowan Fortune-Wood • Leeds LEA & the DfES Consultation on Guidance to LEAs • New Legislation on the Way? • The State as Parent • Home Education in the Wilderness •	• Home Education • Debate on the BBC World Service • European Court Ruling – A Cause for Concern? • Home Education in China • Brave New World by erm... • Rod Liddle in The Spectator 20-09-06 • School Democracy in Action • Indonesian Home Education article • 1 Million Children failed by the System • LEA Behind the Times. • Home Educated child offered top job – at 14! • A Suitable Education • Jamming at the BBC • Schools are regulated, why shouldn’t home education be the same? by Martin Wise • Audio Books on the Web - librivox.org • Developments in Learning • No More Excuses - Stop Smacking Now • E-school and the global marketplace. • Rhythmic Grammar
---	--	--	--	---

Home Education Journal: back issue contents Volume 2

• Issue 5 • Editorial Issue 5 • First New National Home Education Group in 10 Years. • Resisting the Herd by Jan Fortune-Wood • Light Touch Changes • Home Education in the Republic of Ireland by Kim Pierce (Home Education Network) • Scottish Executive announces a sharp rise in home education. • 1/2 of school leavers fail government core standards • Victory in Europe! • The Children's Database – again. • Standardised Testing and Personalised Education – Government Style • 'Learn to read or you will end up in Iraq' • I'm not lazy, Mum– it's my biorhythms! • A very irregular verb • How useful are 'A' levels? • Flexi Schooling • Rumania joins the fold • Never Too Late by Jan Fortune-Wood • Sex Education by Mike Fortune-Wood • Home Education and the Cost of Deregistration by Fiona Nicholson • Pupils want more say in how schools are run • After School Club Workers and some Teachers Exempt from Police Checks • PSPs in Educational Trials •	• No Place For Child Abuse At Home Or At School, Says Ahed • Strange Suspensions • Injustice through Legal Manipulation by Duncan J Sibley • New Research into Home Education • Creativity and Dyslexia • GCSEs for Home Educated Children in Dudley LA by Joy Beasley • The Two Year Degree • 1 in 20 school-leavers have no qualifications • Ritalin – the Cost • Policy Change – USA Style by Joanne Casiello • 1/3 of graduates regret choice of degree • Secondary schools make children feel like cogs. • SEN funding to be roughly divided between schools • Raising of educational leaving age • Autism – a genetic link • More new DfES consultations • School or work? • Issue 6 • Editorial Issue 6 • Schoolhouse Slams Council Ignorance of the Law on Home Education • Changing Head Teachers and School improvement • The Education system is in "The Last Chance Saloon" • Autonomous Education in Germany by Matthias Kern •	• Institutionalization is bad for socialization by Rowan Fortune-Wood • Parents too busy to listen • Can children's rights be a bad thing? by Mike Fortune-Wood • Happy Birthday UK-Home-Ed List • A Guide to Claiming Child Benefit for over 16 year olds by Doreen Philp of Schoolhouse • Government plan to criminalise 16-18 year olds for absenteeism • Health and Safety warning – Plaster of Paris • Parents encouraged to talk to children • Can't Go, Won't Go: Coping with School Refusal Review by Annie H. • New UN report on German Education • Higher Education Report • A Film Case Study of Home-based Education by Roland Meighan • 10 hour a day schools • Pre-school Pressure by Julia Roebuck • Widening Home Education Opportunities at the Open University • AHed Makes a Formal Complaint to the Cabinet Office • Desperate Mother Home Educates • Truancy rates up – Truancy patrols down? • New Diplomas in "Red Alert" Risk Category • Early Years Education and Teaching to the Test •	• Drug Abuse in Schools • Keeping Our Heads Down – A Credible Policy? by Neil Taylor • US Presidential Candidate to Home Educate • The Rain Man Syndrome • Schools are so good that parents employ private tutors! • Issue 7 • Editorial Issue 7 • Fear and Loathing in Westminster • School holidays drive women to drink • Sex Offenders Target My Space • The Guidelines – an Early Local Authority Response by Barbara Starke • Psychometric Testing • Are you Patriotic Enough? • When you are who they say you are • HES FES 2007 • Raising of the School Leaving Age • Debt & Students Studying from Home • Backdoor Admissions Policies • Massive Rise in Postgraduate Degrees • Cautions for Sex Offenders • The Army Needs You! • Educational Resources • 758,000 Empty School Places • Cured of Liberty by Rowan Fortune-Wood • Junior School Results •	• I Live Therefore I Learn: Living An Unschooling Life Originally appeared in April 2005 HSC (Home School Association of California) Magazine by Pam Sorooshian • Job Juggling and the Home Educating Family by Sally Lever • The Bologna Project • Don't Study Maths – pupils told! • Personalised Learning: the New Curriculum • Pupil Power on the Rise? • Home Education in Ireland by Nick Gudge • Autism Helped by Intensive Tutoring • Homeschooling In Bulgaria: A Report from the Second International Colloquium on Home Education by Peter Porumbachanov • Home Educations: The Nordic Experience (Summary) by Dr. Christian W. Beck, Professor at the University of Oslo • International Freedom in Education Day (IFED) (Journée Internationale pour la Liberté de l'Instruction (JIPLI)) September 15th, 2007 • Condolences • Home-based Education and the Problem of the Competence of Inspectors by Professor Roland Meighan • A Precocious Prime Minister • Teaching to the Test • Academy Success Down to Exclusions? • Corruption in Schools • A Levels and Diplomas
--	---	---	---	--

Home Education Journal: back issue contents Volume 3

• Issue 8 • Editorial Issue 8 by Mike Fortune-Wood • Channel 4 and the Numbers Game • Support for Home-Educating Families from Milton Keynes Local Authority by Mary Mullett, Home Education Contact • Unemployed teachers may lose professional status • Urgent Appeal for Help – German Home Educators fined • Internet safety • Computer Games • Out of Control: from Winning Parent, Winning Child by Jan Fortune-Wood (from the opening of chapter 7) • Pushy Parents • Diary Item • School leavers not fit for purpose say industry managers • Lone parents forced to sign on • Single sex classes • 21st Century Curriculum • Welsh Guidance • University Scholarships • Free Laptops in Wales a Move Closer • Gordon Brown's Short Memory • Bella's Story: Case Study 17 • Social workers use "Emotional Abuse" • Proposed changes to the definition of an Independent school and AHED's response • Virtual Short Change • Secret Schools in Germany • School Class	• Helicopter Parents Gordon Brown on Personalised Education • DCFS guidance delayed • Teaching to the Test • Truancy Sweeps – Yet More Guidance • Fraser Institute Supports UK Findings • Degree Earnings • Playing out • Cervical Cancer Jab • A Levels on the Way Out? • How Others See Us – an Animation by Roland Meighan • Doctors Reminded Of Children's Right to Privacy • Issue 9 • Editorial Issue 9 by Mike Fortune-Wood • DCSF Guidance to Local Authorities on Home Education by Mike Fortune-Wood • Special Needs, Bullying & Complaints – "you should get used to it" • Cruel at School by Bev Powell • Children are Unbeatable! Alliance • Government rules out anti child beating legislation • After School Care and the Single Parent • Oxford University: Warning on New Diplomas and Soft A levels • Estonian Home Educators Get a Christmas Present • Autonomy, Disabilities & Specialised Educational Needs by Abbie Green	• Quote: Edward Fisk • A Truly Shocking Report • The Inspiration for The Standing Ground by Jan Fortune-Wood • Free Downloadable Historical Games: • Answering the Local Authority Case by Roxy • MOD Recruitment in the News Again • Book Review - Joy Baker by Chris Shute • Chattering Classes • An Open Path to University for Home Educators by Tamsyn Fortune-Wood • Lower School Leaving Age Proposed • A Cunning Plan • Social Services Intimidate Those Who Complain • New Phone Help Line - Education Everywhere • ADHD – New Developments • Germany & the Battle for Home Education • Can a Local Authority be Sued for Failing to Monitor? • Databases • New Guidance & Old Slurs in Scotland • Facebook Profiles used by Admissions Tutors • England's Pupils Feel Less Safe • DCFS Consider Home Educators' Exam problems • The Neubronner Story •	• Issue 10 • Editorial Issue 10 Mike Fortune-Wood • Why home schooling should NOT be regulated. A British home educator's reply to a hostile global agenda by Neil Taylor • Passport Interviews • A Way into Modern Poetry by Jan Fortune-Wood • Real education is being able to pass exams • Poetry and Creative Writing at HES FES by Jan Fortune-Wood • Nice of them to ask! by Barbara Stark • UK children the most unhappy in the western world! • Sex Education in Britain and America. • The Optimistic Parent: From Winning Parent, Winning Child by Jan Fortune-Wood • Memory impairment effects up to 10% of children. • Free entry to CADW and cheap entry to the National Trust. • The Joy of Reading Late by Jan Fortune-Wood • Abuse, Teachers and Home visits • FACT BOX: • Thousands may avoid the rise in school leaving age • More families abandon state education • Children are Unbeatable • Jo's Story – An extract from a case study from Can't Go Won't Go by Mike Fortune-Wood	• The State as Parent • Creativity to be measured • Exam fees under spotlight • Quote: George Bernard Shaw • Belgium home educator's rights under threat • Alan Bennett Attacks Parental Choice • Teaching with Films • An Orwellian Education • Archwork's continuing campaign against ContactPoint. • DCFS Consultation Process – Interim Report • Schools Breach Admissions Code • Who has access to children in schools? • Much ado about nothing – A Californian court ruling • Flexi-schooling • Part-time timetables • Single parents and Jobseeker's Allowance • A Kind of Treason...? by Roland Meighan
---	---	--	--	--

Home Education Journal: back issue contents Volume 4

• Issue 11 • Editorial Issue 11 • UK Matters • The German Situation • University Student Satisfaction Survey • Proposed Age Banding of Children's Books • Independent Schools Attack New Under-5s Curriculum • 348,000 Children at 'Risk' of Persistent Truancy • Disabilities Discrimination Act – Landmark Case • HES FES 2008 • New Diplomas in Trouble Again • Home Education: a successful educational experiment? by Simone de Hoogh • Getting Creative with the Arvon Foundation by Jan Fortune-Wood • 4mations – a Channel 4 Initiative • Breastfeeding linked to Improved Cognitive Development • Quote: Rabindranath Tagore • Single Parents' Forced Employment Campaign • Fraser Institute Report on Home Education Outcomes • OFSTED Report — “Some schools narrow curriculum by ‘Teaching to the test’” • Home Education in the Press • Lottery Grant for Welsh Group • Quote: Carl Rogers • Government Minimises Concerns over Bullying	• A Case Study US Considers Federal Home Education Tax Relief Bill • Parents Urged to Talk about Sex • Book Reviews • An End to Childhood? A reflection on the philosophy of Bertrand Stern and its implications for home education by Jan Fortune-Wood • Major Home Education Conference • Downloads – for Free • School Biometrics and Databases Move Forward • Virtual Schools – Popular Among Teachers • Teacher's Union Backs Military Cadet Force in Schools • Quote: Margaret Mead • Tests, Tests, Tests • Issue 12 • Editorial Issue 12 • Consultations on Home Education • Parents Express Outrage and Disgust at Latest Government Attack on Families • Education Otherwise Press Release Monday 19th January 2009 • SAT Misery • Warnings about New Diplomas Continue • Sex and Our Children • WWI Poetry Archive Online • Changes to Single Parents Income Support—Information Pack	• Good News as Ireland MEP Raises Issues on Germany • Fall in the Number of Childminders • National Curriculum for Under-5s • Gun-Toting Texan Teachers • Give Children Performance-Enhancing Drugs • Our One-Year Anniversary • Rise in Teacher Suspensions • Government Moves Away from Personalised Learning • Stardom for Home-Educated Singer-Songwriter • Audit Commission Reports on the Effectiveness of Children's Trusts • US Education District 'Tries to Entice Home Educators to Return to School • MSP Wants Return of the Belt • Ivy League Universities Target British Students • What You See May Not Be What You Get Jan Fortune-Wood • Brazilian Court Takes Hard Line on Home Education • Civil Disobedience in Zurich • Rise in Demand for Home Education • Plastic Surgery for Bullied Children • Gaining Consent • Science and Discussion Resources on YouTube • Children Not in School—An Alternative Approach • No to Age Banding • Asbestos Risk in Schools • News from Germany	• Education Otherwise EGM Debacle • Local Authority Challenge to Children's Database • Kidscape Survey of School Bullying • Hello, Hello, Hello! • CAF and eCAF in Wales • Consultation on Revised Statutory Guidance for Local Authorities • Family Fun and Education with the FSC • Issue 13 • Editorial Issue 13 • When 'Education, Education, Education' Becomes 'Control, Control, Control' by Dr Jan Fortune-Wood • A Case Study by Ruth Charles • BECTA, Badman and Informal Learning • School Is Not Compulsory—Education Is by Liz Jolly • Why Point the Finger at Home Educators? by Bernard Trafford • Letter to Lord Lucas on Home Education by Jackie Parsons • Why I Like Autonomous Education By Rebekah (aged 12) and Martin (age unspecified) • The Children's Plan and You—21st century schools by Roxane Featherstone • British Humanists v Church of England: the scrabble for young minds by Dr Jan Fortune-Wood • Case Study: Autonomously Educated by Finn Taylor Moore	• Home Education—my experience by Lin Kennedy • Learning to Read by 8—a Badman target • When Rights Become Wrongs by Mike Fortune-Wood • 'I Can Find No Evidence...' says Graham Badman • A Letter to Mr Balls • Local Authorities—our children's voice? by Jan Fortune-Wood • Stirner Contra Badman by Rowan Fortune-Wood • 11: Independent review of home education • A Family Story by Beverley Smith • False Positives in the Hunt for Child Abuse • The NSPCC Apology • Alex Young • Reflections of Lumb Bank—home educators at the Arvon Foundation's Lumb Bank Centre by Jan Fortune-Wood, Lucy Richards, Daniel Tramer & Esme Nichol • The Dinner Table by Daniel Tramer • Looking for a Destination by Esme Nichol
---	---	--	--	---

Home Education Journal: back issue contents Volume 5

Issue 14 • Editorial Issue 14 • Pupil Registration Regulations (England) Proposed Amendments • The Real Cost of University • Teaching to the Test Blights Children's Lives • Kiva – Loans That Really Do Change Lives • CRAM and Home Education • A Review of Home Education Guidance to Local Authorities in Wales • Two New Websites • Maths Teaching – Relearning Old Lessons • Birmingham EHE Policy Statement • SEN Green Paper • Minister and Union Leader Dismissive of Home Education • Complain – and Have Your Children Taken Away • Home Education in the USA on the Rise • London for Kids • Offending Teachers Not Placed on Sex Register • Latest OFSTED Report into Home Education • OFSTED Report into Serious Case Reviews	• Education Otherwise In Crisis • Teacher's Class Prejudice • A reply from David Laws MP (Lib Dem) • School Choice Initiative Fails to Help Poor Families • Prospective University Students Warned off Soft Subjects • Tennessee State Legislature Urges Germany to Allow Home Education • Call to make Heads Responsible for Bullying • Growing Up Engaged • Select Committee on Child Safeguarding and the Khyra Ishaq Case • HSLDA Meets with Locals in Spain • Review of Sections 436a and 437 • New Rules Affecting OU Study for Previously Home-Educated Students Over 16 • Apology from the Church of England • Awareness Events and Political Lobbying Around the UK • A Home Education Story • children and youth' law	• Japan: Children's and Parent's Rights Threatened The so-called 'nurturing' Issue 15 • Editorial Issue 15 • Intrinsic, Extrinsic – Let's Call the Whole Thing Off • NSPCC Makes Extreme Claims • US Schools Adopt Personalised Learning • Barking and Dagenham – Serious Case Review • Home Education and Long-Term Travel • Further Report on Birmingham Meetings • Brazil Votes Down Pro-Home-Education Act • Learning Together at Thomley Activity Centre • Misuse of CME Policies • Home Education and Special Educational Needs Funding Update • SEN Green Paper March 2011 • Funding for SEN Support • TV Licences • TES Twaddle • Russia's Long and Winding Road to Freedom to Learn • European Conference in Spain	• Update on Domenic Johansson • Home Education Court Case in India • Open University Announces New Fees in England • Florida Mom Jailed for Autistic Child's Truancy • Kindle Motivates Readers • New Study Emphasises Link Between Bullying and Achievement • Book Reading at 16 Linked to Career Progression • Virtual Schools, Free Schools, Duplicity and Profits • Home Educating in Africa and the UK • 12,000 Parents Prosecuted Under Truancy Laws • Beware of Hidden CAFs • Schools Under the Spotlight • eCAF to be Abolished Issue 16 • Co=Sleeping Reduces stress, SIDs and Cortisol Levels • Education Select Committee Home Education – Again • Thoughts on the New enquiry • SEN, Medical and Health Related Support	• Access to further and higher education • Music to Our Ears • Further Education Funding • Black Americans Turn To Home Education • Exams to be more difficult – but hidden good news for home educators • Councilor Claims government to link home educators to schools • CofE Jibe At Home Education • Europe Matters • LA's Still Getting It Wrong • Post 16 education and EHE • Opticians tests and home educated children post 16 • Home Educators fight back FOIs • Autonomously Home Educated Teen In World Education Games Contest • Numbers revisited • Chicanery In Belgium • A French Case • Can Local Authorities Help Home Educators Find Somewhere To Sit Exams? • A Story of LA Support • Free Resources
--	--	--	--	---